. Martin issued the following proclamation relative to the admission of Texas cattle into the state: STATE OF KANSAS.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. Topeka, July 21, 1885. WHEREAS; It is reported that large herds of Texas, lying south of the thirty-fourth parallel of north latitude are moving northward through the Indian Territory and the Cherokee Neutral strip, and WHEREAS; Chapter 191 of the sessions laws of 1885, entitled "an act for the protec-ion of cattle against Texas epidemics or Spanish fever, etc.," provides that no per-son or persons shall between the first day of March and the first day of December of any year drive or cause to be driven into or through any county or part thereof in this state, or turn or cause to be turned or keep upon any highway, range, common or in-closed pasture within this state, any cattle capable of communicating or liable to impart what is known as Texas epidemic or maish fever, and

WHEREAS, Said chapter 191, of the sesion laws of 1885, declare that all cattle from outh of the thirty-seventh parallel of north latitude are capable of communicating and liable to import Texas, splenic or Spanish fever; provided, however, that if the owners or persons in charge of such cattle shall show by such certificates as shall be designated by the Live Stock Sanitary com-missioners of this state that said cattle had been kept since the 1st day of September of the previous year west of the east line of the Indian Territory and or the east one of the indian Territory and north of the thirty-seventh parallel of north latitude, or west of the twenty-first meridian of longitude, from Washington and north of the thirty-fourth parallel of north latitude, the provisions of this section shall not apply Now, therefore, I. John A. Martin, gover-nor of the state of Kansas, do hereby direct all sheriffs, under sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and constables within this state to promptly take charge of and restrain as directed by said act above referred to; any cattle driven in-to, or attempted to be driven through any county where such officer resides and make immediate report of their action to the Live Stock Sanitary commission, and I do here-by direct the especial attention of the coun-ty attorneys of the several counties of Kansas to the provisions of the act above re-ferred to and the duties imposed on them by the said act. The Live Stock San-itary association is also directed to adopt effective regulations enforcing the pro-visions of chapter 191, session laws of 1885, and for punishing any violation of said act. In testimony whereof I hereunto have subscribed my name and caused to be affixed the great seal of the state.
